To GWRRA Officers:

Congratulations! Your acceptance as an Officer in this, the largest Gold Wing and Valkyrie Association in the world, is going to open up exciting aspects of the motorcycling world for you. Along with that excitement comes a lot of responsibility, which you have also accepted. This guide has been constructed to make that responsibility less intimidating. It has the capability of making your responsibilities much easier. With few exceptions, this guide eliminates the need for "rules" and instead, offers "suggestions" and "guidelines" for your consideration. It encourages the word "Yes" and discourages the word "No." It offers an alternative to the expression "Chain of Command" and replaces this outdated concept to a more modern approach to leadership and management, the "Chain of Communication." Communication is the most important leadership skill you will need in your quest for excellence.

You will learn about people; how they think, believe and their work and play priorities. GWRRA is a very high priority to most Members; many have had their whole lives changed after joining. Because of this emotional tie, there is a family bond which defies explanation but will be a very rewarding experience for you and the Members you serve.

Welcome to the world of Association Leadership. We need to use these tools to learn; but, most of all, we hope you use them to serve our most important assets—the Members of the GWRRA. Take full advantage of this Association's history and experience—"FRIENDS FOR FUN, SAFETY AND KNOWLEDGE," ...and thanks for your help.

Dear GWRRA Officers:

You have accepted a very important and responsible position in our Association. A position that will challenge you to provide leadership and to furnish an environment for our Members to come together to experience mostly FUN and CAMARADERIE and also to enjoy riding their GOLD WINGS or Valkyries.

The network you now join as an Officer of GWRRA is wholly responsible for the communication link between the Association and our Members. By acceptance of this Officer's position, all of us have agreed to support the ideals of GWRRA and to provide our Members with a relaxed, fun atmosphere... free of politics and religion. Politics and religion are a personal choice and should always be left to the individual discretion of the Members. Our sole purpose is to keep it simple, make it FUN, and say YES 99.5% of the time. The word NO is not in our vocabulary unless it is absolutely in the best interest of our Members' safety or to maintain the goals of our Association.

This guidebook, that we hope you will refer to often, was developed to provide you with background information about our remarkable organization, to provide guidelines and suggestions for your consideration in the administration of your office and to assist you in making decisions. If at anytime you are uncertain about anything pertaining to your office, please call your Appointing Officer and ask for assistance. All of us are here to support you and to help you be the best that you can be.

In conclusion, as Officers, we are here to serve our Members, they are not here to serve us. We are here to ensure their fun and entitlement as Members of the Gold Wing Road Riders Association. Again, congratulations and best wishes for a successful and meaningful tenure as an Officer of GWRRA.

Enjoy the Ride!
